

Hulda F. Fehr

Funeral services for Hulda F. Fehr were held July 10 at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Lakewood, Colo., with the Rev. Robert V. Zehnder officiating.

Burial was at the Crown Hill Cemetery in Lakewood. Casket bearers were Hugh Baker, Russell Bates, David Day, Arnold Bahr, John Romolo and Larry Sieving.

Mrs. Fehr passed away July 7 at Lakewood.

Hulda F. Bahr was born at Groton June 29, 1906. She lived in this area until she graduated from high school in 1925 when she went to live with her brother Gust in Denver, Colo. She married Thomas Fehr September 1, 1929 and to this union one daughter was born.

Survivors include her daughter Mrs. Robert (Marilyn) Bates of Lakewood, five grandchildren and two greatgrandchildren, one brother Albert Bahr of Groton and a host of relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, one brother and one sister.

Relatives attending the funeral from Wisconsin were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brehmer, Marguerite Lueneburg, Florence Brehmer, Viola Brehmer and Armond Roll; also Eunice and Gloria Hoops from Oregon; and from this area Arnold Bahr, Mrs. Belva Dobberpuhl, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bahr, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hoops and Mrs. Harlow Feller.